Today we went on an adventure with Dani and Beto in the barrio (neighborhood) of San Telmo to listen to live music in the streets- all in Spanish! We played interactive games like Los instrumentos calientes (Hot instruments) a game similar to Hot Potato, and Sillas Musicales (Musical Chairs).

Notas Culturales

Buenos Aires is a very large city made up of many unique and exciting barrios (neighborhoods). Today our class amigos visited San Telmo, the oldest neighborhood in Buenos Aires. Musicians, artists, tango dancers, singers, and street performers can be found on the main street in this neighborhood every Sunday as it is closed to traffic. La Boca is a neighborhood that is famous for the brightly painted houses. The workers who painted the barges took the leftover paint to paint their own homes, which is why the casas (homes) are so colorful.

Internet Suggestion

Visit the fun neighborhoods of Buenos Aires on the internet! This Youtube video is a great view of the neighborhood and live music:
