

¡Vamos con la Música!

Vocabulary List

martes- Tuesday
un cuaderno- notebook
un bolígrafo- pen
la mochila- backpack
el almuerzo- lunch
el teatro- theater
el piano- piano
el violín- violin

Today we went on a field trip to the theater in Argentina with Dani, Beto, and Camila. We played interactive games like “La música” Bingo. We also performed our own small play in Spanish!

Practice at Home

Now your children can use Spanish in full sentences! See if your students can match up the following sentences in English to the Spanish translation.

Yo escucho la radio.

Toco la guitarra.

Me gusta la clase de música.

Me gusta la banda.

Toco el piano.

I like music class.

I listen to the radio.

I play the guitar.

I play the piano.

I like the band.

*The next time you are listening to music encourage your child to tell you if he or she likes the song or band in Spanish. Ie: Me gusta la canción. I like the song. Or No, no me gusta la canción. No I don't like the song. Me gusta la banda. I like the band. Or No, no me gusta la banda. No I don't like the band.

Notas Culturales

Have you heard the famous song “Don't cry for me Argentina”? This is a popular song in Argentina and is from the Evita musical by Andrew Lloyd Webber about the life of Argentine political leader Eva Perón. She was the wife of Juan Perón, the President of Argentina in 1973. The Peróns were very popular in Argentina and are still icons in the history of Argentina.
