

Level II

Vocabulary List

está nublado- it is cloudy
los ojos- eyes	las orejas- ears
la boca- mouth	la nariz- nose
la cara- face
el sombrero- hat	el suéter- sweater
la falda- skirt	los zapatos- shoes
los pantalones- pants
los pantalones cortos- shorts ¿Qué tiempo hace en (season)?
What is the weather like in (season)?

Review/Repaso:

¿Cuántos años tienes?- How old are you? buenos días- good morning buenas tardes- good afternoon temperatura- temperature grados- degrees

Sing songs and play games from class – remember the canción/song “Cabeza, Hombros, Rodillas, y Pies” or game/juego Simón Dice? Keep practicing at home for five minutes each night for optimal retention.

Cantamos - Let's Sing

Here is a song to sing at home with your children.

The Weather and Seasons Chant

En la primavera	llueve mucho
En el verano	hace sol Hey!
En el otoño	hace viento
En el invierno	nieva “galore”

Notas Culturales / Class Activities

Today we looked at a map of the earth to see how it is divided into hemispheres and how the seasons are actually the opposite. So, when it is summer in Wisconsin, it is winter in Uruguay. We also discussed the weather in Chile. Also, hispanics typically don't wear shorts (pantalones cortos) unless they are at the beach.

Information

Please contact the Futura Language Professionals Coordinator, SandyO@FuturaAdventures.com with any questions about Spanish class.