

¡Vamos por la Ciudad!

Vocabulary List

por favor- please gracias- thank you
el jamón- ham
el pan- bread
el tomate- tomato
el queso- cheese
frío- cold
caliente- hot

Today Dani and Beto shared tapas with us in Madrid, España. Tapas are small plates that people share like appetizers or snacks like the picture below. Tapas can be served “caliente”(hot) or “frío”(cold).

An example of a tapa fría would be a cold soup like gazpacho or cheese samples like Manchengo made from sheep’s milk.

Conversation Practice

Me gusta(n)...- I like...

For example:

Me gusta el pan.- I like bread.
Me gusta el queso.- I like cheese.

An example of a tapa caliente would be skewers of chicken or toasted bread. Jamón Serrano, thinly sliced salty ham, is the most popular tapa in Spain.

*For help with pronunciation, please visit www.wordreference.com to hear the words in Spanish

Notas Culturales

Tapas are served almost everywhere in Spain, and are becoming much more common in the United States – try some next time you dine out!

Information

Please contact the Futura Language Professionals Coordinator, SandyO@FuturaAdventures.com with any questions about Spanish class.