Activites Explanation

Make me a sentence! -Make flashcards with gustar pronouns and the conjugations. Also make flashcards with the names of nouns written in Spanish. Call out a sentence like, "I like the museum!" The students with the "me" flashcard, the "gusta" flashcard, the "el" flashcard and the "museo" flashcard come up front and make a sentence. Order counts.

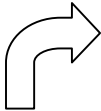

Conjugation Buddies - Everyone in class gets a partner. You call out, "You like the museum!" The partners get 60 seconds (or less as they improve) to discuss and write how to say that in Spanish. At the end of the time limit, each team presents their answer. They get 1 point for the correct pronoun, 2 points for the correct conjugation, and 1 point for every other word in the sentence. Continue playing by changing the call. The team with the most points wins.

Extra Activity

Gusta y Gustan

Bring in old magazines. Use the enclosed work sheet, which has four sections me gusta/no me gusta me gustan/no me gustan. Explain to the students how you say "gusta" for one object and "gustan" if you have more than one object. Then have them cut objects out of the magazines and glue them into the appropriate categories. If there are objects that they already know how to say, you can walk around and have small conversations by saying or asking "Te gustan los coches," when a student is pasting cars to the "me gustan" side. (You can blow up the enclosed sheet or use poster board for this project.)

Hint: Teach your students how to say ¿Cómo se dice? Encourage them to ask you questions!
