Activities Explanation

Poquito Loco—This is a game that is very similar to Mata la Mosca, but with a little variation. Write all the outdoor words on the board—spread out and in large letters. Then break the students into two teams. Have one person from each team go up to the board, and have them put their hands behind their back then call out a vocabulary word in Spanish. The first person to touch the correct word scores a point for his or her team. Rotate students and keep doing this until all the vocabulary words have been used.

Nuestra Ciudad—Using the city that you created, talk in Spanish about what is to the north, south, east or west of other places. Also incorporate “cerca de” and “lejos de” into your discussion.

La Ventana—Go to the window. Call out a Spanish vocabulary word like “un lago.” The class responds with either “Yo veo un lago” or “Yo no veo un lago.”

Cukoo Combo—Divide your class into groups of four. Give each group a stack of white paper. Call out a phrase in Spanish and each group needs to write the Spanish or English equivalent on the paper. (One word per paper.) The first team to the front of the room with the correct words in the correct order wins. Example: Me gusta el río. The students would have to write: I like the river.
