

Notas Culturales

- ❖ In other countries, public transportation is very common! Instead of taking a car, you may take a bus or a train. In Mexico, there are three kinds of buses 1st, 2nd, and 3rd class busses. The third class buses sometimes have chickens on them! The first class buses are very nice. Most of them are Mercedes buses and they have waitresses who hand out sandwiches and drinks, and they show movies!
- ❖ Mexico City one of the largest cities in the world, so pollution is a big problem. Therefore, there is a law which says that one day of the week you cannot drive. This is dependent on your license plate number.
- ❖ Do you know what a VW bug is? It is a type of car Volkswagen makes at their factory in Puebla, México. Most of the taxis in Mexico City are bugs. Did you know there are more taxis in Mexico City than anywhere else in the world?
- ❖ Guatemalan's typically travel by caminoneta or chicken buses, as we know them! They are old American school buses, which are painted bright colors. The drivers usually decorate the inside of the bus and listen to loud music.
