Salutation Practice in Breakout rooms:

Divide class into partners. Each group will have to create a simple back and forth dialogue practicing asking where locations are in the city, and the other partner will answer by providing directions. (ie - Where is the museum? On the corner of Street 5 and Street 7.)

Whole Group Rapid Review:

The teacher will say a word in Spanish and the students will respond with the English translation:

a. el boleto
b. el avión
c. la fila
d. los pasajeros
e. la propina
f. el mapa

The teacher will say a word in English and the students will respond with the Spanish translation:

a. passport
b. seat
c. church
d. bakery
e. park
f. bank

Translate the following words to Spanish:
Food _____ Server _____
Salad _____
Enjoy your meal _____
Coffee _____
Translate the following words to English:
El refresco_____
El vino_____
El agua _____
La cena_____
El pollo_____

Breakout Rooms: Divide into groups of two to practice ordering food in a restaurant. One person will be the 'server' while the other person will be the 'guest'. Servers, make sure to greet your guests guests, make sure to ask for the menu, the bill, and a beverage and meal! A sample conversation is below:

Server: Good afternoon, how are you?

Guest: Good, how are you?

Server: Great, thank you!

Guest: Could I have a coffee please, and then a salad with chicken and fruit?

Server: Sure!

Server (brings out food): Enoy your meal!

Guest: Thank you! I would like more coffee, please.

Additional conversational/ordering practice:

I would like the chicken, please._____

Could I have French fries and a hamburger please? _____

I need more water, please. _____

I love fruit! _____ _____

I don't like soda. _____

Extra practice at home: match the English word from the word bank to the Spanish word:

1. La mesa
2. Me gustaría
3. Las papas fritas
4. La hamburguesa
5. El desayuno
6. La cuenta
7. Necesito más
8. La fruta
9. La merienda
10. Me gusta

a. hamburger
b. breakfast
c. table
d. I would like
e. French fries
f. Fruit
g. check
h. I like
i. I need more
j. snack