Notas Culturales / Class Activities

Today we learned that children in Mexico often drink chocolate with breakfast. The chocolate is stirred with something called a molinillo. The Mexican version of hot chocolate is different because it has chili powder in it so it is a bit spicy.

Practice at Home

See if you can name the food and drink items during meals and teach the words to your family. For example: Tell your family that milk is leche in Spanish and have them repeat the word after you!

Go online to play games and test your knowledge about food and drinks in Spanish at:

Cantamos – Let's Sing

Here is a song to sing at home with your children. Encourage your students to sing you the tune and tell you the meaning of the words in the song.

¡ Bate, bate, chocolate.
Tu nariz de cacahuete.
Uno, dos, tres, ¡CHO!
Cuarto, cinco, seis, ¡CO!
Siete, ocho, nueve, ¡LA!
Diez, once, doce, ¡TE!
Chocolate, ¡chocolate!
Bate, bate, ¡chocolate!
Bate, bate, bate, bate,
Bate, bate, ¡CHOCOLATE!
