Today we visited a mercado in the Andes Mountains in Peru. A great way to reinforce the lessons from class is to practice these vocabulary words while you are shopping for clothing, or washing or folding laundry. Sing the new song to the tune of "This is the way we..." from class below with your child.

Cantamos- Let's Sing

Sing the song about colors below tune of "Frere Jacques" and have your child tell you what all the colors are.

Notas Culturales/ Internet Suggestion

Within the Andean village of Ayacucho you can see many artisans at work and purchase their handicrafts like: rugs, tapestries, and carpet. A specialty of the city is the etched mates burilados or gourds. Bartering is a common practice in Peru among the locals. The money in Peru is called the Nuevo Sol (commonly referred to just as sol). In Lima, Peru the US dollar is frequently used and accepted. Find the current conversion rate to see how many sol equal one U.S. dollar at www.xe.com.
