Keep practicing at home, your student will remember much more! Ask your student to spell their name in Spanish, or count household items.

Cantamos- Let's Sing

Here is a song to sing at home with your children. Have your child teach you the song!

Tres Ositos

(Sing to the tune of "Three Little Monkeys Jumping on the Bed")

Tres ositos brincaban en la cama
Un osito cayó y lastimó su cabeza
Mamá llamó al doctor y el doctor dijo,
"No más ositos brincando en la cama."
(Repite con "Dos ositos...un osito")

Practice at Home

Try to translate the following words into Spanish!

Friend

Number

Family

Hello

Name

Thank you

*Answers from last week's scramble in order:
amiga, bien, mal, luego, buenas,
noches, adiós, hasta

Notas Culturales / Class Activities

Often times, as a "cariño" (sign of affection) Hispanics add -ito on to family words. Example: abuelita or little grandma. In Costa Rica, they add -tico onto the end of their words instead of -ito which is why Costa Ricans are often nick-named "Ticos". How would you say "little cat" or "kitten"?

(answer: gatito)
