

SPANISH SCAVENGER HUNT!

For this optional homework activity, help your child to read the tasks on the scavenger hunt below and initial each one he or she completes. It will be especially important to do this together if your child is a non-reader. Hint! If your children are struggling to remember vocabulary, use the past newsletters as reminders.

- Find a Spanish speaking channel on t.v. and write the channel number _____.
- Now say that number out loud in Spanish.
- Greet a family member in Spanish. (ex: ¡Hola mama!)
- Say goodbye to someone in Spanish. (ex: Hasta luego.)
- Visit the website youtube.com and search for this song: “Spanish Interrogatives Jingle Bells Song”. Watch the video.
- Write down a new word or phrase that you learned from the video _____.
- Write your name: _____ . Say each letter of your name in Spanish.
- Go to the website Google Images and search “children from Peru”. What do you notice about the children/pictures? _____
- Have a contest with someone in your family to see who can count the highest in Spanish.
