

Level VI

Vocabulary List

aburridos, aburridas- boring interesantes- interesting simpáticos, simpáticas- nice antipáticos, antipáticas- mean jóvenes- young mayores- old/elder

¿Qué hora es?- What time is it?
¿A qué hora es?- At what time?
¿A qué hora es la clase de ___ ?-
At what time is ___ class?
¿A qué hora es el partido de ___?-
At what time is the ___ game?

el café- the coffee
el te- the tea
las frutas- the fruit
la manzana- the apple los vegetales- the vegetables las verduras- the vegetables los legumbres- the vegetables la zanahoria- the carrot

Notas Culturales

Did you know that Puerto Rico is not an independent country, but a U.S. territory? The culture is a mixture of Spanish, African and Taíno (a people native to the island) traditions. Puerto Ricans are United States citizens and have a representative in the U.S. House of Representatives, but they cannot vote in U.S. elections. Puerto Rico also has two official languages: inglés y español.

Today we discussed how in Spanish many pronouns show the gender of the person or people. When talking about multiple people, the masculine form of the pronoun is used for groups of boys and for groups of boys and girls together. Therefore, “ellos” could be a group of boys or a group of boys and girls. We also continued learning about the verb ser, which means “to be” by practicing using ser to talk about countries, about our family members, talking about parts of the face, colors, and numbers.

Más Información

Look at the following groups of people and decide which pronoun you would use to talk about them.
Work Bank: ellos or ellas

1. Ana, Anita y Miguel _____
2. Ana, Anita y Marta _____
3. Arturo, Miguel y Pedro _____
4. Sra. Sarita y Sra. Clara _____
5. Marta y Ana _____

Information

Please contact the Futura Language Professionals Coordinator, SandyO@FuturaAdventures.com with any questions about Spanish class.