

¡Vamos a comer!

Vocabulary List

la mesa- the table
el plato- the plate
el tenedor- the fork
la cuchara- the spoon
el cuchillo- the knife
el vaso- the glass
el tazón- the bowl
pon la mesa- set the table

por favor- please gracias- thank you

¿Tienes __?- Do you have __?

Today we talked about lunch in Spanish and learned the words for setting and clearing the table. A great way to reinforce the lessons from class is to practice these vocabulary words while you are preparing or eating meals in the kitchen.

Practice at Home

With your family, set and clear the table for dinner tonight using our new vocabulary words! See if you can do it without using the vocabulary list, or if you remember any additional vocabulary words from class, including previous words! ¡Diviértanse!- HAVE FUN!

Notas Culturales

Today we discussed what a typical lunch (almuerzo) is like in Mexico, where our class companions Dani and Beto live, since it is the biggest and most important meal of the day. They eat a typical Mexican meal with the whole family: Pollo, arroz, salsa verde y frijoles. Lunch in many Spanish speaking countries is kind of like our dinner!

Information

Please contact the Futura Language Professionals Coordinator, SandyO@FuturaAdventures.com
with any questions about Spanish