

¡Vamos con los animales!

Vocabulary List

la granja- the farm
la vaca- the cow
las vacas- the cows
el pato- the duck
los patos- the ducks
el pollo- the chicken
los pollitos- the chicks
el cerdo- the pig
los cerdos- the pigs
el caballo- the horse
los caballos- the horses

Today we visited La Granja. We learned many of the farm animals in Spanish. Practice them at home!

Los Pollitos Dicen (The chicks say) is a popular children's folk song in Mexico. Search for this song on Youtube to watch and listen to the song.

Conversation Practice

Vamos a la granja.- Let's go to the farm.

¡Libro!

See if you can find the following book to read together at your local library: Los Pollitos Dicen Pio (Spanish Edition) by Mercedes Figueroa and J. Alonso Or find any bilingual books at your local library to read to your children.

Notas Culturales

In Mexico and some other Latin American countries in rural areas, farmers may take their farm animals to the market to sell. Some people transport chickens for example by bicycle (in crates on the back) or they can take them on public buses.

Information

Please contact the Futura Language Professionals Coordinator, SandyO@FuturaAdventures.com with any questions about Spanish