

Los Colores y Las Culturas

- Many Mexicans live in California, Texas, and Illinois. Find California on the map and color it verde. Find Texas and outline it in verde, but leave the inside blanco. Find Illinois and color it rojo. Verde, blanco, and rojo are los colores of the Mexican flag!
- Many Cubans live in Florida. Find Florida on the map. Color it azul.
- New York has the largest variety of Spanish-speaking people. Many are from the Dominican Republic, Colombia, Ecuador, Mexico, Cuba, and Puerto Rico. Color New York anaranjado.
- The largest groups of Spanish-speakers live in these states! Do they live in your's too? If so, color your state, morado.
- Did you know that New Mexico used to be part of Mexico? Color New Mexico negro.
- Puerto Rico is a Spanish speaking territory of the U.S. Can you find Puerto Rico on the map? Look hard! Color Puerto Rico (PR) amarillo.

*Alaska, Hawaii and Puerto Rico are not in their actual locations
