

¡Vamos a Acampar!

Today we went on a swimming adventure with Dani and Beto and learned all new vocabulary in Spanish.

Vocabulary List

Vamos a nadar- Let's go swimming Tengo calor- I'm hot el traje de baño- swimsuit las toallas- towels
el lago- lake el tubo- inner tube
la pelota- beach ball
los anteojos- sunglasses azul- blue

Notas Culturales

Mexico City is the third largest city in the whole world! People from Mexico City (D.F.) like to travel on the weekends to Valle de Bravo. The lake there, Lago Avándaro, is the most popular attraction. There are many water sports available, as well as sailboat rides. Puerto Rico is an archipelago, an island group/chain, only 1,000 miles southeast of Miami, Florida. Puerto Rico is a Caribbean island and territory of the United States with roughly 3.2 million residents in 2020. Since it is a US territory, the currency is the same and we can travel there without needing a passport. There are wonderful tourist destinations like scuba diving, snorkeling, and beautiful beaches.

¡Cantamos!

Me Pongo

(Sing to the tune of "Farmer in the Dell" and sing with gestures of putting clothing items on.)

Me pongo el traje de baño, me pongo el traje de baño

Hoy me pongo el traje de baño (put on swim suit)

*For the next verses substitute in la toalla and los anteojos.

Information

Please contact the Futura Language Professionals Coordinator, SandyO@FuturaAdventures.com with any questions about Spanish