

Vocabulary List

el superhéroe/la superheroína –
the superhero

el villano/la villana- the villain/bad guy/girl

el disfraz- the costume

la capa- the cape

la máscara- the mask

los poderes- the powers

Soy...- I am...

Tengo...- I have...

fuerte- strong

inteligente- smart/intelligent

rapido(a)- fast

valiente- courage/brave

Me llamo____- my name is____ ¿Cómo te llamas? – What is your name?

Notas Culturales

Today we discussed superheroes from Spanish speaking backgrounds. Zorro is from Mexican and Spanish descent and is known as the “Mexican Robin Hood.” Aztec is a DC Universe superhero and Nayeli is the female version with Aztek armor.

New and popular superheroes include Miles Morales who is bilingual and speaks Spanish with his Puerto Rican mother. Blue Beetle is a DC superhero movie that features Mexican-American culture and representation.

¡Vamos a Imaginar!

Today we started our imagination journey with the exciting superhero theme! We learned a lot of Spanish and played fun games. Ask your child what his or her favorite game was!

Information

Visit the Parent Portal on our website for additional practice opportunities. Please contact the Futura Language Professionals Coordinator, coordinator@FuturaAdventures.com with any questions about Spanish class.