

GARIBALDI DANCE CAPES

Garibaldi dance capes from Peru are colorful capes that dancers wear during special celebrations and parades.

They are usually:

- 📖 Made of bright fabric
- 🌟 Decorated with shiny designs, embroidery, and pictures.
- 🎉 Worn while people dance to traditional music

The cape moves and flows when the dancer spins, which makes the dance look exciting and beautiful!

These capes are part of Peru's rich traditions and help show pride in their culture during festivals and community celebrations.

Now select the correct answer based on what you read.

Garibaldi dance capes are from:

- a) Mexico
- b) Spain
- c) Peru

When the dancer spins, the cape:

- a) Flows and moves beautifully
- b) Falls off
- c) Disappears

The capes are usually:

- a) Dark and plain
- b) Bright and colorful
- c) Small and simple

The capes help show:

- a) What time it is
- b) Pride in culture
- c) The weather

Dancers wear the capes during:

- a) Bedtime
- b) Festivals and celebrations
- c) School lunch

GARIBALDI DANCE CAPES

Draw and color your own Garibaldi dance cape. Be creative!