

Grading Rubric – El restaurante (un diálogo)

	1	2	3	4
Project Requirements: --greeting --waiter takes order --enjoy food/thank you --customer asks for bill --goodbye	Several basic requirements missing.	Basic requirements are addressed, though some may be missing.	All basic requirements addressed and several of the advanced elements included.	Student goes above and beyond by including many advanced elements.
Spanish Grammar: verb conjugation, sentence formation, adjective agreement	Many issues with Spanish grammar.	Demonstrates a partial understanding of grammatical aspects of writing in Spanish. Minimal sentence variety.	Demonstrates a clear understanding of most grammatical aspects of writing in Spanish. Some sentence variety.	Demonstrates a mastery of grammatical aspects of writing in Spanish. Exceptional use of sentence variety.
Writing Mechanics: spelling, punctuation (including accents)	Many errors with spelling/punctuation.	Some errors with spelling/punctuation.	Very few errors with spelling/punctuation.	Nearly zero errors with spelling/punctuation.
Creativity and Author's Tone	Dialogue is overly simplistic.	Student primarily sticks to comida/restaurante vocab. A few other vocabulary words may be incorporated.	Student incorporates vocabulary and grammar from other units to add interest.	Student goes above and beyond to stretch their Spanish skills and effectively incorporate vocabulary and grammar from other units. Humor or author's tone enhance writing.